

MANIPAL ACADEMY OF HIGHER EDUCATION
THIRD BDS DEGREE EXAMINATION – MARCH 2021
SUBJECT: ORAL PATHOLOGY AND MICROBIOLOGY (ESSAY)
(NEW REGULATION)

Saturday, March 13, 2021

Time: 14:15 – 17:00 Hrs.

Maximum Marks: 60

✍ Answer all the questions.

✍ Draw diagrams wherever necessary.

✍ Essay Questions:

1. Define premalignant lesion and condition. Write in detail the etiology, clinical and histopathological features of Oral Submucous Fibrosis

(2+2+3+3 = 10 marks)

2. Describe in detail the histogenesis, clinical features and histopathological features of pleomorphic adenoma

(3+3+4 = 10 marks)

3. Write Short Notes on:

3A. Taurodont

3B. Radiographic and histopathological features of dentigerous cyst

3C. Histopathology of enamel caries

3D. Radiographic and histopathological features of fibrous dysplasia

3E. Etiopathogenesis and histopathological features of Pemphigus

3F. Bite marks

3G. Ludwig's angina

3H. During the biomechanical preparation of the root canal therapy the dentist was not able to navigate through the canal. Radiographically a globular radiopaque mass was seen. What is this radiopaque mass? Explain the types.

3I. Clinical features and histopathology of Aphthous ulcer

3J. Factors affecting healing of oral wounds.

(4 marks × 10 = 40 marks)

