

MANIPAL UNIVERSITY

FINAL BDS PART – I DEGREE EXAMINATION – JUNE/JULY 2017

SUBJECT: ORAL MEDICINE AND RADIOLOGY (ESSAY)
(NEW REGULATION)

Saturday, July 01, 2017

Time: 14:15 – 17:00 Hrs.

Maximum Marks: 60

1. Define ulcer. Write in detail about the clinical features, investigations and management of pemphigus vulgaris.
(1+3+3+3 = 10 marks)
2. What is multilocular radiolucency? Describe the types of multilocular appearances. Describe conditions causing multilocular radiolucencies with differentiating features.
(10 marks)
3. Write short notes on:
  - 3A. Denture stomatitis
  - 3B. Management of oral submucous fibrosis
  - 3C. Dental considerations in a diabetic patient
  - 3D. Treatment modalities for Oral cancer
  - 3E. Cyclic neutropenia
  - 3F. Intensifying screen-composition and function
  - 3G. Dark radiograph
  - 3H. Radiographic film –Types and composition
  - 3I. Differential diagnoses of Periapical radiolucencies (Any four)
  - 3J. Deterministic and stochastic effects of radiation

(4 marks × 10 = 40 marks)

