Taylor and Francis Open access agreement

It is to bring to your notice that MAHE has signed an open access agreement with Taylor and Francis for waiver of open access fee to articles published by authors from MAHE. The agreement will be with effect from June 2022. The terms and usage of the agreement are

1. Publication with corresponding author affiliated to Manipal Academy of Higher Education can utilize the benefits of the agreement. It is mandatory that authors to follow affiliation format as prescribed by university.
2. The APC for the articles published in the listed fully open access journal will get a waiver of 50% on the standard pricing.
3. For the hybrid access journal (journals with optional open access features-“Open Select”), authors from MAHE may choose to utilize the agreement for making APC payment, for which they would receive a 50% waiver on the standard pricing.
4. In point 2 and point 3, for the remaining 50% of the APC the author/authors will have to utilize the conference fund or incentive points as per existing policy of MAHE.
5. The first 25 articles (original and review only) accepted for publication from 1st July 2022 in selected quartile one (Q1, top 25%) journals from the list provided will get full waiver of APC. This would be applicable annually for the period July to June as per the agreement for the next 3 years.
6. During the submission authors have to choose the institution as “Manipal Academy of Higher Education” for utilizing the benefit of the agreement.
