

Post Acceptance Author Journey:
Manipal Academy of Higher Education institution associated corresponding authors

Key information

1. How do we determine eligibility of the article for the MAHE agreement?

- The acceptance date of the article should be on or after the start date of the agreement
- The corresponding author must be affiliated with a participating institution in the agreement
- The article must be from a participating journal

Key information

2. Specifics of the agreement

- All Institutions of Manipal Academy of Higher Education are eligible for the agreement
- Core Hybrid journals are included

3. What is the definition of the corresponding author for the purpose of the agreement?

- Corresponding author is the author who submits the article to Elsevier and stays in contact with Elsevier in the end-to-end journey
- This is the author who makes the publishing choice on behalf of the author group
- Every article has one corresponding author

Key information

4. Role of the institutional Librarian/Admin in the Elsevier OA Platform (EOAP)

- By the time the article is in your EOAP, we have published the first version of the article in ScienceDirect (within 48 hours of acceptance)
- You therefore do not approve the publication of the article; you validate whether the corresponding author can make use of the APC funding under the agreement
- As an agreement administrator, you have full rights to decide whether the author is eligible for the agreement

System presents author with the Journal License Publishing Agreement

Review Order and this Review Order applies to all manuscripts published with Elsevier B.V.

Elsevier B.V.

Your Status

- I am one author signing on behalf of all co-authors of the manuscript

License of Publishing Rights

I hereby grant to Elsevier B.V. an exclusive publishing and distribution license in the manuscript identified above and any tables, illustrations or other material submitted for publication as part of the manuscript (the "Article") in print, electronic and all other media (whether now known or later developed), in any form, in all languages, throughout the world, for the full term of copyright, and the right to license others to do the same, effective when the Article is accepted for publication. This license includes the right to enforce the rights granted hereunder against third parties.

Supplemental Materials

"Supplemental Materials" shall mean materials published as a supplemental part of the Article, including but not limited to graphical, illustrative, video and audio material.

With respect to any Supplemental Materials that I submit, Elsevier B.V. shall have a perpetual worldwide non-exclusive right and license to publish, extract, reformat, adapt, build upon, index, redistribute, link to and otherwise use all or any part of the Supplemental Materials, in all forms and media (whether now known or later developed) and permit others to do so. The publisher shall apply the same end user license to the Supplemental Materials as to the Article where it publishes the Supplemental Materials with the Article in the journal on its online platforms on an Open Access basis.

Research Data

"Research Data" shall mean the result of observations or experimentation that validate research findings and that are published separate to the Article, which can include but are not limited to raw data, processed data, software, algorithms, protocols, and methods.

Author agrees to the Journal License Publishing Agreement

For further information see the publishing ethics page at <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/publishing-ethics> and the journal home page. For further information on sanctions, see <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/trade-sanctions>

Author representations

- The Article I have submitted to the journal for review is original, has been written by the stated authors and has not been previously published.
- The Article was not submitted for review to another journal while under review by this journal and will not be submitted to any other journal.
- The Article and the Supplemental Materials do not infringe any copyright, violate any other intellectual property, privacy or other rights of any person or entity, or contain any libellous or other unlawful matter.
- I have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in the Article or the Supplemental Materials.
- Except as expressly set out in this License Agreement, the Article is not subject to any prior rights or licenses.
- If I and/or any of my co-authors reside in Iran, Cuba, or Syria, the Article has been prepared in a personal, academic or research capacity and not as an official representative or otherwise on behalf of the relevant government or institution.
- If I am using any personal details or images of patients, research subjects or other individuals, I have obtained all consents required by applicable law and complied with the publisher's policies relating to the use of such images or personal information. See <https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/patient-consent> for further information.
- Any software contained in the Supplemental Materials is free from viruses, contaminants or worms.
- If the Article or any of the Supplemental Materials were prepared jointly with other authors, I have informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this License Agreement and that I am signing on their behalf as their agent, and I am authorized to do so.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This License Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the country or state of International Federation of Automatic Control ("the Governing State"), without regard to conflict of law principles, and the parties irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Governing State.

For information on the publisher's copyright and access policies, please see <http://www.elsevier.com/copyright>.

I have read and agree to the terms of the License Agreement.
